A MESSAGE FROM SHANNA COX
LA METRO CHAMBER PRESIDENT + CEO

Androscoggin County is a great place to do business, raise a family, and make lifelong connections. The LA Metro Chamber proudly supports business and aims for community impact. We believe a local economy thrives when businesses build and grow and residents love where they live. Our chamber is welcoming, with places for entrepreneurs, small business owner operators, and leaders of industry and institutions to connect with each other.

You can learn about the chamber by coming to one of our events, signing up for newsletters, talking to one of our members, or connecting with our great team. Your experience with the chamber will be tailored to your needs and business goals, and we can't wait to get your experience started!

In service,
Shanna
